Delay to opening of new town centre post office

CREWKERNE will have to wait a little longer for the re-opening of its town centre post office.

A grand reopening in new premises had been planned for Tuesday, August 16th, but a Post Office spokesperson has confirmed a delay.

The town centre has been without a post office since January, when the landlord requested vacant possession of the East Street premises in which the post office was previously located.

In April, a proposal for "a modern, open-plan branch with significantly extended opening hours within the premises of Dailyz Tech" was announced.

The proposal was agreed following a public consultation period, and an opening date of August 16th was announced.

However, a Post Office spokesperson has now said: "There has been a delay to the planned re-opening of Crewkerne Post Office in mid-August

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

as work to prepare the store for the Post Office still needs to be completed.

"We do not yet have a date for when work to install the post office can take place.

"We remain committed to re-opening a post office in Crewkerne."

Dailyz Tech proprietor Steve Smith was not available for comment as Pulman's View From Crewkerne went to press, but was quoted on social media as saying: "Regrettably we have had to delay the opening.

"As a local business we understand how important it is to have these vital services up and running, as soon as possible.

"We are still 100 per cent committed and 100 per cent enthusiastic about bringing the main post office back to Crewkerne.

"We have come a long way to get to this point and I'm certainly sure that the people of Crewkerne will be very pleased with the outcome, that we will achieve.

"At this present time, we are uncertain of an exact opening date, what we can say is that it will not be far away."

George Hotel to change hands after 22 years

THE George Hotel in Crewkerne is changing hands today (Tuesday), after 22 years under the ownership of Frank Joyce.

Mr Joyce, who bought the hotel with his first wife in 1994, has thanked staff and customers for their support over the years.

He did not give the name of the buyer, but said the hotel had been sold to "a Greek gentleman", who will take over today.

About his own plan's for the future, Mr Joyce said: "No more business, I'm retiring to Maiden Newton.

"I would like to thank my customers, past and present, and my staff, past and present, for their support over the years."

Rail partnership members enjoy day out in Crewkerne

MEMBERS of Blackmore Vale Line Community Rail Partnership's Sherborne group (CRP) travelled by train to Crewkerne for a day out.

The partnership was launched in March and includes the railway stations from Tisbury to Crewkerne on the West of England Line.

The core aims of the partnership are to get more people using their local line and to promote the area and its culture, tourism and heritage in partnership with local businesses and groups.

About 20 members of the Sherborne group enjoyed cream tea at Haselbury Mill after disembarking at Crewkerne and being welcomed by Friends of Crewkerne Station (FOCS) secretary Gail Coleshill.

Once at Haselbury Mill, they were greeted by owner Roger Bastable and taken on a tour of the buildings and grounds before the cream tea.

They liked what they saw and CRP officer Caroline Rowlands said: "I was so impressed by the idyllic and tranquil surroundings of Haselbury Mill.

"I felt sure that it would be an ideal spot for our visitors from along the line.

"I am hoping that we will be able to offer similar happenings in other towns along the line."

Mrs Coleshill added: "We at FOCS were very pleased to help in this innovative move to promote activities between the towns on the line."

AXMINSTER Skatepark improvements plan moves step forward

THE charity behind Axminster's new skatepark does not anticipate any problems in getting planning permission for the £200,000 plus facility.

During a public meeting at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre on August 1st, Axminster Skatepark announced that a 20-year lease (at £1 per year) has been agreed with the sports centre – and that a planning application will be submitted before the end of the year.

The current skatepark site will be expanded to span 52 x 16 metres, accommodating 21 features.

Work has been going on behind the scenes since early 2014 to achieve charitable status, which opens the door to possible grants.

Russ Holbert from Maverick Industries, which will build the skatepark, gave a brief presentation at the meeting and took questions from the floor.

SIDMOUTH FolkWeek boosts local economy

SIDMOUTH'S famous FolkWeek has offered a 'great boost' to the local economy during its eight-day run in the town.

Each year sees tens of thousands of folk fans flood into the town to enjoy the festivities and last week was no different, as revellers basked in the hot weather over the festival's weekends and packed the seafront and the town.

Local business owner Steven Kendall-Torry said: "FolkWeek is a great boost to the Sidmouth economy. The many food outlets and pubs see most of the benefits of the thousands of people coming into Sidmouth."

Still to come this summer in Sidmouth is the regatta weekend, which this year will hopefully see a full show from the RAF's crack display team, The Red Arrows.

From the editor's chair No longer the forgotten town

SEATON has suffered some difficult days through the years of austerity.

Many believed it was the forgotten town of East Devon, languishing behind its posh neighbour, Sidmouth.

Some would even argue that had East Devon District Council been based in Seaton, it would have been a very different matter.

But now few can deny that Seaton is definitely on the up and the latest development of the former Grove nightclub bears testament to this. This week we report on the £3 million investment in the town centre site where generations of youngsters sowed their wild oats.

The former nightclub and its surrounds are being converted into a gymnasium, possible high class restaurant, retail units and town houses.

It is said the investment will provide "a massive boost" to the economy of Seaton, so long starved of resources until recent years.

A cloud of negativity hung over Seaton for so long after the demise of the holiday camp and the arrival of Tesco. Many considered the town to be doomed and there is no doubt that the town's main shopping streets suffered badly during this difficult time. But with the opening of the £4 million Seaton Jurassic visitor attraction, the continuing success of Seaton Tramway (now a must for all visitors) and the news that at long last Seaton is to get a recognised hotel in the pending arrival of Premier Inn, the future is looking a lot brighter.

No one, however, is pretending that Seaton's troubles are over; the challenge of directing visitors into the shopping area is still very much on the agenda.

Seaton Town Council and the town's marketing offshoot, the Seaton Town Development team, have worked hard in recent times to organise events that will attract people to the shopping centre, most of which have enjoyed some success.

♦ ALTHOUGH he's been linked to David Cameron's cronyism allegations, it would be churlish in the extreme not to congratulate East Devon MP Hugo Swire on his Knighthood in the former Prime Minister's resignation honours list. You may not agree with his politics, but he has served this country well in various forms and there are many who have been honoured down the years for doing far less.

CHARD Chard to benefit from share of £260k anti-flood scheme

THE A358 at Chard is part of a £260,000 plus anti-flood scheme given the green light by Somerset County Council.

A total of four projects are in the scheme to reduce flood risk in South Somerset.

The four projects, with a total cost of £262,000, will improve drainage, making it easier to cope with severe weather and reducing the risk of flooding.

The Chard project will see installation of drains, gullies and silt traps.

The scheme is funded from a £10million Department for Transport grant to the county council following the severe flooding in the winter of 2013/14.

CREWKERNE New town centre post office delayed

CREWKERNE will have to wait a little longer for the re-opening of its town centre post office.

A grand reopening in new premises had been planned for Tuesday, August 16th, but a Post Office spokesperson has confirmed a delay.

The town centre has been without a post office since January.

A Post Office spokesperson said: "Work to prepare the store for the Post Office still needs to be completed. We do not yet have a date for when work to install the post office can take place."

ILMINSTER Malachi's head shave raises £3,500 in memory of dad

AN ILMINSTER family has been stunned after a fundraising head shave to support the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance coined in around £3,500.

Greenfylde First School pupil Malachi Hall came up with the idea of having his locks shaved in aid of the air ambulance and in memory of his dad, who was killed as a result of a car accident.

A Just Giving page has been set up at <http://bit.ly/2ayRUrP> for people wanting to donate.

OTTERY ST MARY Straitgate plans back on the agenda

THE plan for the controversial Straitgate Quarry in Ottery St Mary is once again on the agenda, after Devon County Council announced another public consultation.

The public consultation runs until September 23rd and County Hall are wanting to hear from Devon residents to have their final say on the plans for quarrying in the county for the next 17 years.

The Devon Minerals Plan was developed following several rounds of consultation and informal engagement and examined by a government inspector in May.

Full details are available on the county council's website here: https://new.devon.gov.uk/have_your_say

HONITON Council unveils three route options to improve A30

THREE potential route options to improve the A30 at Honiton have been unveiled by Devon County Council, as it launches a two-month public consultation this week.

The A30/A303 is one of the more notorious stretches of road in the south of England and provides a main arterial link between London and the South West. Highways England are currently developing improvements to the A358, A303 and A30.

The next consultation meeting in Honiton is on August 20th at the Mackarness Hall, 10am to 6pm.

See the three possible schemes to feed back on at: <https://new.devon.gov.uk/a30-blackdownhills>

SEATON Redevelopment set to boost town

THE developers of the old Grove site hope their £3million investment will be a massive boost for Seaton town centre trade.

In addition to the footfall set to be generated by the gym, offices, retail units and houses in the original plan – two additional retail units could be created in Fore Street, with a high end 60 plus-cover restaurant at the back. The additional idea is subject to planning application.

Members of the public are invited to the open day on September 3rd between 9am and 12noon.

COLYTON Campaign to save Lloyds Bank

PARISH councillors and representatives of the local church are campaigning to save the Colyton branch of Lloyds Bank from closure.

It was announced in July that Lloyds – the only bank in town – was to close but members of Colyton Parish Council and St Andrew's Church have written to the chairman of Lloyds Bank.

Parish clerk Liz Berry said that the council "strongly opposed" the closure and also wrote to Neil Parish MP asking for his support in the matter.

Campaign launched to 'Rescue Doreen' at arson-hit Donyatt Halt

VOLUNTEERS are getting together to try and restore the historic Donyatt Halt which was badly damaged by arsonists.

A small committee has been formed and volunteers have generously responded with materials and labour to help rebuild the waiting hut, replace the Donyatt Halt sign and the reprinting, framing and installing of an interpretation board at the old train platform.

But there is still one essential piece of the Donyatt Halt refurbishment which needs to be sorted – the statue of Second World War evacuee Doreen Ash.

Committee spokesman Donna Grabham said: "This was so extensively damaged by the fire that a complete rebuild is required.

"The cost for this work which includes removal of the damaged sculpture and erection of its replacement is £3,000.

"Considering the original cost of the statue, we believe this charge is a most generous offer by the original sculptor Ian Edwards who is equally upset by the mindless damage to his work."

A bank account has been set up called "Let's Rescue Doreen" and a collection box has been placed in the George pub in Donyatt.

It was back on Wednesday, November 25th when arsonists set fire to a wooden shelter at the Donyatt Halt, which had been installed as part of a restoration project to bring to life the history of the former railway platform which had been heavily used during the Second World War with young evacuees arriving in Somerset for safety away from the bomb-hit cities.

The statue of Doreen Ash was created by Ian Edwards, of Chard, who's own grandfather was also evacuated to Donyatt at the same time as Doreen.

The restoration of Donyatt Halt was part of a community project between 2005 to 2009 which saw a group of volunteers from Ilminster, Donyatt, Knowle St Giles and Chard work together with district and parish council to link the communities along the disused railway line with a cycle path.

The original Donyatt Halt was built in 1928 with a single platform faced with wooden sleepers and a small wooden waiting shelter.

In 1940 it became part of the Taunton Stop Line which was built by the Army to contain any German invasion of the South West.

The defences were 50 miles long and ran from Burnham-on-Sea on the Bristol Channel to Seaton on the English Channel comprising of a continuous line of anti-tank obstacles with pillboxes and road blocks.

Between Ilminster and Chard it followed the Great Western Railway branch and is a prominent feature of Donyatt Halt with the anti-tank obstacles – large blocks of concrete known as dragon's teeth – still visible thanks to the heritage project, which received National Lottery funding, uncovering them from overgrown vegetation as part of the restoration.

Council launches new travel website

AN all-in-one travel website has been launched by Somerset County Council.

A spokesperson for the council said: "The new mobile-friendly website offers live updates of unplanned travel incidents, 24-hours-a-day, seven-days-a-week.

"It also has a searchable map showing details of all current and future planned roadworks and road closures in Somerset.

"The new website is complemented by the @TravelSomerset Twitter account which provides live updates directly from council's traffic control team.

"If you spot a problem which they're not aware of, you can tweet them directly so they can help share this with the travelling public."

Councillor David Fothergill, Somerset County Council's Cabinet member for highways, added: "None of us want to waste our time stuck in traffic jams, so our goal was to provide a better, more reliable way for drivers to find out what's going on out there.

"If you know in advance about planned roadworks, and are aware of any live incidents, you can make informed choices about how and when to travel, and which routes to take and which routes to avoid.

"I'm really excited about Travel Somerset and think it is going to be incredibly useful for anyone who regularly uses our roads.

"It's also interactive, so you can get in touch with us through Twitter to give us live updates, which we can then share with the public. Hopefully this two-way flow of information will improve over time as more and more people join in, so please get involved and help us to help you."

The new website also has information on buses and public transport, live departure boards for all Somerset's train stations, flight details for local airports, and sections on walking and cycling.

This will continue to be developed and improved in future.

When you first log on to the website, depending on your browser, you can choose to have live alerts about severe traffic incidents sent directly to your phone or device. The roadworks page also has a function allowing you to sign up for email alerts about planned roadworks and road closures on routes of your choice.

The Travel Somerset website can be found at www.travelsomerset.co.uk while the Twitter account is @TravelSomerset.

Boathouse uncovered at local nature reserve

VOLUNTEERS at the Chard Reservoir Local Nature Reserve are uncovering an old boathouse which was probably built in the late Victorian times.

But visitors to the reserve – which is managed by South Somerset District Council – are being asked not to get too close.

"The stonework is very unstable so visitors should stay away from the edge," said a statement on the Chard Reservoir's social media page.

But now the countryside rangers and volunteers at the reservoir are appealing for anyone with information about the former boathouse or the reservoir in general.

"If anyone has any historical information or old photos regarding any aspect of the reservoir we would be very interested," said the spokesman.

Hazelwell Lodge to host summer beach party

A SUMMER beach party will be held at Hazelwell Lodge in Ilminster on Saturday, August 20th from 1pm.

The stalls will include a tombola, hook a duck, a treasure map, name the teddy and balance the lemon games.

There will be refreshments available throughout the afternoon with a barbecue, while there will also be a performance from the Ilminster Majorettes and live music.

All proceeds from the event will go towards the residents' fund at Hazelwell Lodge which is an award-winning residential care home for the elderly.

Bingo night for carnival club

THE Poppe Inne Carnival Club will be holding a prize bingo night later this month and everyone is invited for "eyes down."

The bingo night will take place at the Ye Olde Poppe Inne at Tatworth on August 20th with doors open at 6.30pm and eyes down at 7.30pm.

'See Bike, See Life!' challenge to raise funds for local hospital

A SOUTH Somerset man and his team of 12 friends are planning an extraordinary challenge called 'See Bike, See Life!' to raise funds for the League of Friends of South Petherton Hospital, Southmead Hospital and the brain injury charity Headways.

Lee Riva, a quarry supervisor from Ilchester, and the team will carry a motorbike from RNAS Yeovilton to Southmead in Bristol on September 23rd and 24th in order to highlight road safety issues as well as fundraise for those organisations who helped his stepson to recover from a serious motorcycle accident.

"I get a thrill from doing charitable events," said Lee, who has also completed the Three Peaks Challenge, an 800-mile bicycle ride around England and the Tough Mudder Challenge.

Explaining the reasons behind his latest challenge, Lee said: "Early in the morning of January 11th, 18-year-old Ashton was commuting to work on his little 100cc motorbike when he was knocked off it by someone who pulled her car out straight in front of him.

"There were a couple of soldiers out running who were straight on the scene. They called for an ambulance and Ashton was rushed to Yeovil Hospital, but as he had a major brain injury he was transferred immediately to Southmead Hospital in Bristol.

"Ashton had a number of breakages in his body and a punctured lung, which they were able to fix while he was sedated. Unfortunately, his brain injury was so severe that we were given the worst news you could ever hear – the doctors didn't really expect Ashton to come out of it or, if he did, he would most likely be bed-ridden.

"You just don't expect a thing like this to happen to your family, especially with someone of Ashton's young age."

For six weeks, Lee and family members travelled to Southmead Hospital every day to be at Ashton's bedside. As the weeks went on, Ashton was moved out of the Intensive Care Unit and into a specialist neurological ward where, although still asleep, he started to show some positive signs – his hands were twitching and his toes started moving.

Lee described it as "some sort of miracle".

He added: "From where he was to where he is now, is amazing. From the doctors saying that Ashton would never walk or be conscious, I would say he is now about 80 per cent recovered.

"He's now walking, swimming and doing rehab at the gym – although he gets tired by the end of the day or if there is too much going on around him. Ashton also got his voice back, so he can talk now."

Ashton is delighted to be at home with his family where he is being cared for by an outreach specialist team from South Petherton Community Hospital. The team provide physiotherapy and 'brain-training' sessions, and assess him regularly.

In order to raise road safety awareness and save lives, Lee's fundraising team will use only their own strength and determination to haul Ashton's twisted motorbike for 47 miles along the B-roads, from the crash-site in Yeovilton to where his life was saved in Southmead Hospital.

Lee will be joined by his friends Del Tyler, Grant Evans, Al Wilson, Jim Coulter, Martin Burton, Brian Hardy, Jon Hardy, Mac Dowden, Ashley Williamson, Reece Chesterman, Katherine Lowson and Charlotte Gundry on the haul from Yeovilton to Southmead.

Lee and his friends are also undertaking this challenge as a way to express their deep gratitude to the organisations who have cared for Ashton and helped him to get better – the League of Friends of South Petherton Hospital, Southmead Hospital and the brain injury charity, Headways.

To help Lee and his friends raise funds for the League of Friends of South Petherton Hospital during the 'See Bike, See Life!' event, you can donate via Lee's JustGiving page by searching for 'Seebikesee-life2' at www.justgiving.com

For further information about the League of Friends or to become a member of this local charity, contact the secretary Shirley Zaple on 01935-479740 or see the website www.lofsh.org.uk

Chard author recognised for book written after losing baby

A MOTHER who has suffered the heartbreak of losing a baby has put pen to paper and had her first book published – and now she has been nominated for an award

Chard resident Julz Scott began writing down her thoughts when she was pregnant and, at Melody's early birth at 26 weeks, she found it helped her progress into the neonatal journey which was anticipated to be 100 days.

But sadly it only lasted 35 and changed to a journey of child bereavement.

Julz's first book, "Mayflower's Rainbow", has helped her cope with this terrible loss.

"I found writing an easier outlet, especially when the support offered to me thinned out," she said.

"Here began our grief journey, and eventually led on to my next pregnancy. Through writing my book, I knew our experience with grief wouldn't be stopping with a new baby, so I turned to blogging too – it became a way of saying things out loud, particularly if I was having a bad day."

Julz, with the help of Becky Scott and the Reverend Sue Tucker at St Mary's Church, has also recently set up a Pregnancy and Infant Loss Support Group, Melody's Voices.

This is a monthly support group for parents who would like to meet others who have been through similar experiences. They meet on the first Tuesday of the month at 7.30pm in the grounds of St Mary's Church, Chard.

"Mayflower's Rainbow" is available in Chard Bookshop in Pig Lane, off Holyrood Street, priced at £6.99.

Amanda Broom, who works part-time in the bookshop and is also a councillor on South Somerset District Council, said: "Julz's way of coping with her own family tragedy has led to something quite incredible, raw emotion encapsulated in not just a book, but blogs and now a support group, it started as a way to help Julz cope, but now is there to help others too.

"I am really pleased that Chard Bookshop is stocking Mayflower's Rainbow, and we are happy to help support such valuable local support networks like these in our community."

All of this has led to a nomination for a Butterfly Award, which celebrates champions and survivors of baby loss.

The awards recognise parents, families and health professionals who have been through the loss of a child or supported others. Julz has been shortlisted for the blogger / author award and the awards take place in October 2016.

Mayor welcomes guests from Romanian twin town

■ FORGING FRIENDSHIPS: The Mayor of Chard, Councillor Dave Bulmer, and Mayor of Seica Mare, Nicolae Susa. Below, the mayor with town crier Stuart Cumming

A CIVIC reception was held in Chard for visitors from the twin town of Seica Mare in Romania. It was the return visit following on from the Mayor of Chard, Councillor Dave Bulmer, leading a party to Romania back in April with members of the Project Romania charity team.

Councillor Bulmer said: "The significance of these visits is the fact that this is the 25th anniversary of Project Romania and a key milestone for both Chard and Seica Mare to be proud of."

The Romanians – led by the Mayor of Seica Mare, Nicolae Susa, and Deputy Mayor, Florin Benghea – arrived in the UK at Luton Airport.

Councillor Bulmer and the Mayoress, Marilyn Page, met them the following day in London where they visited all the popular tourist sites of the capital. They then ventured onto Chard where the mayor hosted a civic reception for the visiting Romanians at the Guildhall in Fore Street.

This was attended by a number of dignitaries from around the area and was a great success.

The Romanians were also able to enjoy the Chard Summer Festival festivities of the weekend and they took part in the parade up through town on the Saturday evening before the lighting of the Beacon.

They also attended a church service at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Furnham Road, Chard, followed by an excellent lunch put on by the church. The Romanian party also visited a number of other locations within the area.

Project Romania – which was set up by the Chard Churches Together group – sends out about £1,000 a month to the Seica Mare commune in Transylvania to support the poverty-stricken residents.

The visiting Romanians were certainly able to enjoy some glorious weather on their visit to the UK.

But one of them said: "The weather has been a problem because we came prepared for the UK and brought lots of coats, jumpers and lots of warm clothes!"

Royal Naval Association hosts annual service

THE Chard Branch of the Royal Naval Association hosted their annual Sea Sunday service on July 10th in support of the Mission to Seafarers, which is this year marking its 160 year anniversary.

The service as usual was held in St Thomas Church in Cricket St Thomas, near Chard, and was attended by eight members of the branch, this being down on the usual turn out with individuals being out of area on the day or ill.

A spokesperson for the Chard RNA said: "Our standard was present at the service and was paraded as usual by shipmate Malcolm Day our branch standard bearer.

"This year saw shipmate Dave Asprey give the reading in the absence of shipmate Jim Noble who with Edna and his family were away celebrating their diamond wedding anniversary."

On completion of the service the members present adjourned to the Cricket St Thomas Golf Club for tea and coffee whilst waiting to be joined by other members for the annual Sea Sunday dinner, which this year was a carvery meal. After the meal the ladies of the branch ran their usual raffle, which raised £45.

The money raised in the Mission to Seafarers envelopes at the service raised more than £110 which has been sent off to them.

■ YOUNG TALENT: A collection of children's prizewinners at Wambrook Flower Show

VISITORS to Wambrook Flower Show on Saturday, July 30th enjoyed a fun afternoon and fierce competition for trophies.

The ancient tithe barn at Cotley was filled with colourful vegetable, fruit and flower exhibits for the annual show, and the raffle, tombola and book stalls in the marquee were kept busy.

Chardstock Historical Society brought along items of local interest, as did this year's flower show charity recipients, The Blackdown Hills Countryside Fund.

A competition to grow the heaviest crop of potatoes from a single tuber was particularly popular, with the Cockburn family coming out triumphant with Ed Cockburn being the winning adult with a crop weighing 5lb 14oz.

His daughter Darcie won the children's class with a crop weighing 4lb 7oz, as well as The Wambrook Wild Winner class for her bird feeder made from a plastic bottle, and the President's Challenge Shield for highest number of points in children's classes.

The Longest Stinging Nettle contest was won by Pippa Eames with one that was almost 10 feet tall, while David Asquith was presented with the Bob Pettitt Memorial Cup for achieving the highest number of points in adult classes.

Trophy winners: Cotley Inn Cup for Photography - Ann Cooke; John Beviss Challenge Cup for Vegetables - David Asquith; Brooke-Ball Challenge Cup for Fruit & Flowers - Kay Avery; Stooks Challenge Cup for Roses - Sue Eames; Richards Family Cup for Floral Arrangements - Sue Wallace; Lesley Willey Plate for Preserves - Jean Mussell; Broad Oak Cup for Baking - Sophie Ralph; Larcombe Challenge Cup for Wine & Soft Drink - Tudor Jones; Parslow Cup for Craft - Theresa Braunton; Michael Mussell Memorial Plate for Limerick - Theresa Braunton; Fred Stubbings Rose Bowl for Handwriting - Darcie Cockburn; Wambrook & Bewley Down Centenary Cup for Local Classes - David Asquith; Pidgeon Challenge Cup for Best Exhibit in Show - Theresa Braunton.

Outgoing Rotary president marks end of term with afternoon tea

IN a change to the normal black tie dinner, outgoing president of the Rotary Club of Ilminster, Linda Piggott-Vijeh, celebrated the end of her year in office with a posh afternoon tea at Dillington House.

Linda said: "I very much wanted to move away from the traditional function style of black tie dinner, and also conscious of cost decided that afternoon tea would be a fun thing to do."

"We were very lucky in being able to have the use of Dillington House, and the weather held up nicely."

"More than 50 guests, including the Mayor of Ilminster, Councillor Val Keitch, and Councillor Mike Best, chairman of South Somerset District Council, were greeted with Pimm's on the lawn, before feasting on sandwiches and scrumptious cakes and scones, finishing off with crumpets and strawberries and cream."

Past president John Wood also commented: "This has been a tremendous year for Linda, who has a reputation for doing things in her own inimitable style. She has managed to increase our number of members by three, we participated in Ilminster Carnival for the first time, achieved several awards, including one from the President of Rotary International for our international work, and have worked on several projects within the community, notwithstanding the first ever Ilminster Literary festival. She will certainly be a hard act to follow."

■ PRIZEWINNER: Three-year-old Izabella Shearer was thrilled to win Rufus the dog in the raffle and was even allowed to try on the Rotary president's chain Olympics come to Greenfylde!

Pupils at Greenfylde First School are all set for the Olympics in Rio having held their own Olympic Day at the end of term.

Organised by their school games co-ordinator, Bob Brunt, the day at Ilminster Recreation Ground saw classes representing countries ranging from Great Britain to China, Estonia and Australia, and taking part in a range of Olympic and Paralympic-themed events.

The day was opened by the Mayor of Ilminster, Councillor Val Keitch, who was ably assisted by Richard Baker as Master of Ceremonies and the children took part in their own opening ceremony, proudly waving flags representing their chosen countries.

The children then took part in a range of events including football, discus, javelin, boccia and guided running and there was even an equestrian event thanks to some very tame hobby horses! They were helped by young sports leaders from Swanmead Middle School and brought the day to an end with a closing ceremony.

Headteacher Claire Oaten said: "The Olympics are a major world wide cultural and sporting event and it was wonderful to have our own small piece of this here in Greenfylde."

"The children love to work as teams and took great pride in representing their countries and whilst competitive, also show the strength and character needed to support and celebrate the achievements of others."

"Having both Olympic and Paralympic-themed events made the day inclusive for all and hopefully showed our pupils that in sport there are no boundaries to what you can achieve."

Henhayes recieves £250 grant from Bluebird Care

■ ALL SMILES: Ross Perkins (Bluebird Care director), Eileen Mills (Henhayes trustee), Beth Jackson (leader of Tuesday Welcome Group), Rosemary Prince (chairman of Henhayes trustees), Tim Udall (Henhayes trustee) and Janet Mearing (Bluebird Care care manager)

Bluebird Care has awarded the Henhayes Centre in Crewkerne a £250 community grant.

The grant is given to organisations across South Somerset involved in supporting older people or addressing loneliness in the community.

Bluebird Care director Ross Perkins said: "It is lovely to see the great work being done by everyone at the Henhayes Centre.

"We are proud to be able to support this terrific cause.

"So many neighbourhoods thrive because of volunteers who work tirelessly to run community groups, host events and provide services that benefit others.

"Much of this work involves supporting older people who, without regular coffee mornings, day-trips or lunch clubs, would be left isolated at home.

"As well as providing care and companionship services to people living in their own homes, Bluebird Care is passionate about supporting community projects and initiatives, and this is our way of giving something back."

Grant application forms can be obtained from Bluebird Care's Yeovil Office by calling 01935 584184.

Coombe Farm Organic wins award in Fantastic Food Stars

COOMBE Farm Organic has won the Rising Star category of the Fantastic Food Stars competition.

The competition is run by leading food festival organiser Fantastic British Food Festivals.

Coombe Farm, situated in Roundham, just outside Crewkerne, is up against two other category winners for the overall title, which will be announced in September.

Since starting to produce organic grass-fed beef and lamb in October 2015, Coombe Farm won three gold awards in the Taste of the West Awards 2016.

The farm draws and purifies its own water from a spring beneath the farm, doesn't use chemicals and pesticides, and has the highest animal welfare standards.

Speaking about Coombe Farm Organic Liz Lewis, business development manager of Fantastic British Food Festivals, said: "Coombe Farm Organic really impressed us as judges as they demonstrate the values that we should all be looking for when buying and eating meat today.

"They are committed to sustainability, quality, value, high animal welfare and no wastage.

"Their products taste delicious too."

■ ORGANIC SUCCESS: Coombe Farm impressed the judging panel

The team at Coombe Farm Organic said: "Coombe Farm Organic is very pleased and honoured to have been nominated as the winner of the Rising Star category.

"Our business was launched in October 2015 and right from the very start we were working hard and passionately to maintain the highest level of quality, customer service and sustainability.

"To be recognised like this affirms that our business is headed in the right direction."

Summer programme of special events announced at museum

CREWKERNE & District Museum volunteers have announced a variety of events to entertain the public during the summer.

David Brackston, a well-known local artist, will be holding an exhibition until 20th August, called "Colourful Creations of the Countryside". The exhibition opened on August 1st.

Singer and songwriter Julian Dawson will be bringing the building to life with a gig on Frida, August 12th at 7.30pm.

Museum volunteer Janet Harris said: "The current exhibition, 'Changes – The Last 60 Years', has given us the link to Julian's favourite era of songs – the 50s/60s and this popular singer, who spends most of his life gigging in America and in Europe, will no doubt have the room rocking.

"Tickets are limited, so call into the museum soon to buy yours for £7, to include light refreshments."

On a quieter note, the museum now has a lending library situated on the landing of local material.

This is available to the public at no cost and visitors are asked to record loans.

Much of the material for the library was donated by the Andrew family.

Janet added: "In recognition of the work carried out towards the success of the museum by Simon and Sylvia Andrew, the meeting room has now been renamed the Andrew Room.

"The recent exhibition on the last 60 years of life in the area is proving of interest to local people who are discovering images of friends and relations and stories about events in their memory. The exhibition runs until the end of August.

"The final historical exhibition of the year will be 'Carnivals, Fairs and Fetes' – so if you have any memorabilia to bring along, contact the museum with details during August.

■ WELL-KNOWN: David Brackston is exhibiting

"The monthly coffee mornings on each first Saturday continue to be a hub of chatter and friendly meetings.

"There is also an opportunity to see the museum and the courtyard in full bloom – a quiet haven from the traffic at the front of the museum."

■ SOME 20 members of Crewkerne & District University of the Third Age (U3A) Jazz Appreciation Group partied at the Crewkerne home of Val and Tony Warren. Each member brought along their favourite track to play and listen to while various 'trad' meats and 'ragtime' vegetables sizzled with syncopation on the barbecue. The group was started three years ago by Val and has gone from strength to strength, helped by the arrival of Colin Miller, a professional musician, who played drums with Chris Barber's band, and who has joined Val as the joint leader.

Chard Churches Together standing against hatred

■ IN the wake of the very significant change and uncertainty that we are all experiencing as a result of the referendum on June 23rd, Chard Churches Together wishes to stand together against the intolerance, discrimination and hatred that has arisen in many parts of our land.

Our group of churches, which comprise of the Christian denominations represented in the town and surrounding villages, believe that our country, county and town of Chard are all enriched by diversity and celebrates the contribution made by all those who have come here from other parts of the world.

Chard Churches Together recognises that the Christian tradition calls for respect, tolerance, love of neighbour and hospitality to the stranger. These principles all bear the responsibility of speaking and acting for healing, reconciliation and mutual respect.

ciliation and mutual respect.

Chard Churches Together also abhors and deeply regret all actions and words which incite hatred and lead to the victimisation of groups within society. Believing that racism is a denial of the gospel and that to stay silent when others are abused is to collude with those who seek to promote hatred and division, and as Christians in Chard we continue to pray for the well-being of our local and wider community.

Chard Churches Together also ask our political leaders to work together for the good of the whole community, putting the needs of the nation paramount and to hear the voices of those who have been marginalised and alienated, so as to respond to them in ways which offer real hope for the future.

Jacquie Wheatley,
Chairman, Chard Churches Together

A great day at junior triathlon

■ WHAT a good day was had by all at the 17th Crewkerne Junior Triathlon which took place at the Crewkerne Aqua Centre and on the field behind at Henhayes, thanks to the 40 volunteers who gave up their time to make this such a successful event.

There were four age groups each doing the three disciplines of swimming, cycling and running. All the children who finished were presented with a T-shirt, a banana and a medal which was placed around their neck by local GB team member Tom Priest.

A few children asked Tom questions. The committee expressed their appreciation to all their sponsors and look forward to seeing you all again on July 2nd next year.

Council warns of bogus callers

RESIDENTS in Somerset have been put on bogus caller alert after several reports of cold callers pretending to be from Somerset County Council.

Bogus calls are being made by a person saying they are from Somerset County Council, claiming to be working in conjunction with the NHS investigating accidents.

"Let me be clear, this is not a Somerset County Council employee," said Councillor David Hall, Somerset County Council's Cabinet member responsible for Devon and Somerset Trading Standards.

He added: "Please, if you receive a call which sounds similar to this one, don't give out any personal details and end the call right away."

Bogus calls can be reported to Devon and Somerset Trading Standards via the Citizens Advice Consumer Service on 03454 040506, or contact Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040. Speaking out can help combat this scammer.

"We are anxious for people not to be caught out, so please be on your guard for this, or any other bogus caller," added Councillor Hall.

Trading Standards advises you to ask yourself the following questions to identify a bogus caller - if you can answer 'yes' to any of these questions, there is a good chance someone is trying to scam you, in which case you should hang up.

- Was the offer unsolicited?
- Do I have to respond straight away?
- Do I have to ring a premium rate number?

- Do I have to give my bank or credit card details?

- Is the business reluctant to give their address or contact details?

- Am I being asked to keep it confidential?

- Does it look too good to be true?

Visit Trading Standards' 'Scams, Rogue Traders & Doorstep Crime' page at <http://bit.ly/1VU8z9O> for more information and advice.

ARADA STOVES

Global Expansion for Axminster Stove Producer

Arada Stoves has been going from strength to strength, bucking a national trend with global expansion and sales success in the stove market.

Despite the tough economic climate, the Axminster based wood burning stove manufacturer has developed trading relationships within two further international markets over the past month.

Following a successful visit to the UK, well established stove distributors in Japan, have completed a distribution contact with Arada. The first shipment to Japan will be made in early Autumn which will include new products developed specifically for the Japanese market.

Following product approval for the North American market, Arada have also had confirmation of orders from their American distributor. The agreement comes after rigorous Environmental Protection Agency testing and a lengthy approval process which has taken more than a year to complete.

Both opportunities have come from work carried out earlier this year during international exhibitions in both Verona, Italy and New Orleans in the USA. Following the exhibitions, further distribution enquiries are also still being explored by Arada's sales team.

This news is especially welcome at a time of current uncertainty, particularly with the recent Brexit decision and a general decline in stove sales across the UK last winter.

Commercial director, Mark Brettell commented: "There is a widely held view in the industry that the stove market has declined last year, however we have maintained sales levels and high performance, taking market share from our competitors."

"Building a strong UK sales base complemented by strategic export growth is important to us and these new global relationships are a huge achievement and step forward for Arada, building towards our ultimate goals of becoming a truly international company."

"Everyone should be proud to be a part of Arada- this is great positive news for all of us, and I want to thank all our staff for their continued hard work and commitment."

17th Annual WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 27 AUGUST 2016 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM
RAISING FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR DORSET & SOMERSET AIR AMBULANCE

It's that time of year agin!...

AUGUST may seem a long month for harassed parents trying to keep the kids happy during the summer holidays...but, for the small nucleus of volunteers who organise the annual 'Wings and Wheels' at Henstridge, a few more days would be very welcome! This is the seventeenth year for this ever popular show and the same team still remain at the helm as launched the event in 2000. "I was mere youth of sixty when we began it all" quipped veteran commentator and publicist Terry Booker "But retirement is not an option when it's in such a good cause". Over the years, together with colleagues Chris Wood and Joe Williams, the trio have presented well over a thousand aeroplanes and a thousand vehicles to visitors from all over Somerset, Dorset and beyond. And it's all aimed to promote funds and greater awareness for the airfield-based Air Ambulance.

Of course the team can't do it all and, on the day, help is readily on hand from the airfield staff, from local volunteers and from friends and family members who've had their arms twisted. One team, without whose presence the event could not run as smoothly as it does, come from the local Air Training Corps squadrons. The cadets and their officers look after the public car parks and provide 'runners' to support the various key sites. This year the ATC organisation celebrates its historic 75th Anniversary. As a fitting mark to their importance to 'Wings & Wheels' and in gratitude for their support, the organisers are delighted to dedicate to them the afternoon's fly-past salute by the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight.

Regular visitors to the event are quick to comment on how friendly and relaxed is the atmosphere on this former Royal Navy airfield. While safety, as always, is the top priority; the whole team work hard to ensure that it provides the maximum enjoyment for pilots, drivers, exhibitors and many hundreds of individual and family visitors. In the words of the event chief, Chris Wood, "It's a simple approach...if we don't cause problems for people...people don't cause problems for us".

So, Bank Holiday Saturday August 27th is the date for your diary. With prices held yet again at just £5:00 for adults and accompanied under 16s free, it's a family day out that won't require a second mortgage. No post-Brexit increases at Henstridge! It's well sign-posted and is located off the main A30 Sherborne to Shaftesbury road just a couple of miles east of the village.

WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 27 AUGUST 2016 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM
RAISING FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR DORSET & SOMERSET AIR AMBULANCE

In the air...

FOR those visitors who may be a little confused by aviation jargon and who aren't sure what to expect at 'Wings & Wheels', it's really quite simple. The event is a 'Fly-in' and not an Air Show, Air Day, Air Festival or Flying Display. So the best advice is to always 'expect the unexpected'. Think of it as a Classic Car Show with wings and you'll be about right. There is no pre-set timetable and it's 'non-PPR' (Prior Permission Required). That is even more jargon which simply means that the pilots can just turn up and request permission to join. They do not have to pre-book and reserve a slot. Of course air-traffic do appreciate a call in advance but it's not essential...this can really help pilots if they see a nice bright day for flying and want to go somewhere different. So there are no strictly timed displays and the next aircraft to drop in over the threshold could be a modern home-build, an ex-World War Two spotter or a unique survivor from the 1930s.

There are many such events all over the world and the UK's summer calendar is full of them. But the Henstridge team and their colleagues from the former 'Vintage Flying' organisation think that have an ace up their sleeve. 'Wings & Wheels' close the air park at lunch time and allow everyone the unusual opportunity to actually stroll among the aeroplanes. This is your chance to take some memorable close-up pictures and to chat to the many pilots who have stayed with their machines. If the weather has been kind across the South then the air park might hold over a hundred vintage, classic and current types. But do remember the unwritten rule.....'take only photographs and leave only footprints'.

The only 'official' spectacle is our traditional salute from the RAF with aircraft from the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight. Over the years we've seen all their aircraft...even the once-in-a-lifetime thrill of the two Lancasters. This time it will be the Spitfire and Hurricane which the team will dedicate to their helpers from the Air Training Corps. The organisers maintain close contact with other display aircraft that might provide a glimpse of something special. Last year saw early morning fly-pasts from the RN Historic Flight's 'Swordfish' and a superb fly-over by the 'Reds'...all ten of them with smoke! Who knows what 2016 might yield?

WIN a Flight in a War Time Tiger Moth

The publishers of View From newspapers are delighted to be able to offer you another chance to win an exclusive and exciting prize. In conjunction with our friends at Wings and Wheels, we have secured a further opportunity for one lucky reader to follow in the slip-stream of the Battle of Britain pilots. You too can take to the same summer skies over Dorset and Somerset. This is your chance to win an AIR EXPERIENCE FLIGHT IN A LEGENDARY WAR-TIME 'TIGER MOTH'.... this much loved little aeroplane was the probably the first aircraft that the fighter-aces encountered as they began their training.

Our previous lucky winners have described it as..."Simply the experience of a lifetime!" Your pilot on the day will be one the top-flight trainers from the airfield-based Tiger Moth Training (www.tigermothtraining.co.uk) and your aircraft will be one of their three immaculately restored World War Two examples based on the airfield. YOU might be the one to be flying over Henstridge on the very same day as the historic Hurricane and Spitfire from the BBMF!

Just answer the simple questions and return to our offices: c/o Rob Coombe, Wings & Wheels competition, View From Newspapers, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3DB before the closing date of Friday, 19th August 2016. Winners will be picked at random, editors decision is final.

- Q1. What organisation is celebrating its 75th anniversary?
- Q2. Which BBMF aircraft are scheduled for the fly-past?
- Q3. What time do the public gates open for Wings & Wheels?

17th Annual WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 27 AUGUST 2016 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM

and on the ground...

THE popularity of 'Wings & Wheels' among the vehicle owners has grown dramatically in recent years. While there may well be countless other classic car and vintage vehicle shows in the region which they can share with their fellow enthusiasts....there are very few that are shared by scores of interesting aeroplanes. It makes for a very appealing three-way traffic, drivers enjoying the aircraft, pilots enjoying the vehicles and the visitors enjoying them both.

The organisers have always been keen to encourage the broadest possible cross-section of wheeled exhibits. Within the inevitable constraints of parking space and site safety, the owner of the modern 'super car' is as welcome as his neighbour with the vintage Rolls. In the same vein, a WWII jeep will be parked between a Morgan 3-wheeler from the thirties and a BMC Austin-Healey 'frog-eye' Sprite from the late fifties. The stewards always try to get club vehicles together in their groups or set aside a few extra yards for line-up of motor-cycles. Special arrangements too are made for the owners of what might be described as 'Trans-Atlantic Chrome'; since the models emanating from Plymouth, Dodge, Buick or Chrysler can't really turn on the proverbial sixpence nor squeeze into the gap between the Bedford bus and the Fordson Tractor.

Nonetheless, despite the hectic hour so ahead of the public opening, everyone enters into the spirit of the occasion and this good-natured co-operation does much to ensure the happy atmosphere of this well established event. Visitors shouldn't expect to see the normal car show with everything neatly aligned like a municipal car-park. Instead, think like the aviation enthusiast and 'expect the unexpected' because it will be in there.....somewhere!

There are two other Henstridge features which are a must for every visitor. First, and what it is all about, is the presence of Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance. Subject of course to any emergency tasking, the helicopter will come across to crowd-side and give you the chance to meet and greet the crew. This may well be your last chance see G-DORS as her contract expires shortly and her replacement is already undergoing trials to take over this vital role. Second, and of almost equal priority, is the 'Wings & Wheels' catering. The Clubhouse and Marquee offer a variety of meals and snacks throughout the day. But it's the lunch-time specials of Hog-roast and, what is known to the team as 'Joe's Barbie', that are absolute essentials to complete your day.

The gates open at 10:00 am and the airfield closes around 5:30pm... parking is free and there are facilities for disabled visitors, albeit these are somewhat limited by the site itself. For more information please visit www.dorsetcarclub.co.uk, follow us on Facebook and would potential exhibitors please phone 07887 744163 (24hrs).

Tips to keep your dog safe at the beach

IF you are lucky enough to live near the sea or are planning a trip to the beach with your dog, here are some tips to make sure you all stay safe.

- Don't assume your dog can swim. All dogs have to learn to swim just like us. Some breeds are naturally strong swimmers, but other breeds (such as corgis and pugs) are not. If your dog is not used to swimming then the sea is not the place to start, so make sure he doesn't get out of his depth.

• For some reason dogs do drink salt water, but it doesn't do them any good and can make them vomit, or worse lead to potentially fatal salt poisoning. Signs of salt poisoning in dogs are vomiting, diarrhoea, loss of appetite, lethargy, walking drunk, abnormal fluid accumulation within the body, excessive thirst or urination, potential injury to the kidneys, tremors, seizures, coma, and even death when untreated. Discourage your dog from drinking sea water by providing plenty of fresh water and not over exercising on the beach in the heat.

• Ingesting sand can lead to sand impaction, a medical condition where parts of the intestines are blocked by the sand. Vomiting is the most common side effect; dogs may also lose their appetites, have abdominal pain or become lethargic. Seek urgent veterinary advice if you think your dog may have eaten a lot of sand.

• Consider a life vest if you are planning to swim, sail or surf with your dog. You can buy life vests for dogs of all sizes. Waves and currents can quickly exhaust your dog, especially in cold water. Some life vests also have a handle on the back, making it easy for you to lift your dog out of the water.

• Apply sunscreen to your dog—especially for dogs with thin or pale fur and apply to areas such as the nose and ears.

• Don't forget poo bags so you can clean up after your dog.

• Make sure your dog has a collar, ID tag and is micro chipped, just in case he gets lost.

• Don't overdo it. Running on sand is more tiring than on grass, so don't expect your dog to be able to run and play for as long as he might on his normal walk and start slowly, giving him time to warm up.

• Make sure your dog has a shady area to rest in and remember that sand can be scorching on paws on a hot day so make sure you have a blanket for them to lie down on.

• Be careful to avoid heat stroke – watch for signs of overheating such as excessive panting, drooling, coordination problems, vomiting and/or diarrhoea and collapse.

• If your dog suffers from arthritis or other joint conditions limit the amount of time he spends swimming in cold water. He may think it is great fun at the time, but he will probably be very stiff and sore the following day. They can also get tail strain from using their tail as a rudder when swimming, which can be very painful.

• At the end of the day check your dog over thoroughly for cuts and scrapes, rinse him thoroughly to remove salt and sand from his coat and paws and dry him to ensure he does not get chilled.

Bicton Gardens is a sea of Union Jacks with Proms success

THE BEAUTIFUL gardens of Bicton Park were awash with red, white and blue as 900 people enjoyed a spectacular show for Hospiscare's Proms in the Park last Saturday.

The rain clouds stayed away as the night opened with the big brass sounds of the South West Comms Band who were followed by the gifted voices of India's finest tenor, Anando Mukerjee and the UK's own inspirational Laure Melay. The musical arrangement included songs from musicals and popular operatic arias such as La Traviata and Boheme. The night was also supported by local choir, The Wynndham Singers and compere and soloist Mervyn Hayes, all accompanied by the talented Jonathan Delbridge & Sam Nickels on the grand piano.

The night concluded with a superb build-up of atmosphere as the classics of Jerusalem and Rule Britannia rang out across the Park. An amazing firework finale lit up the stunning setting of the grade 1 listed Italianate gardens.

The event raised several thousands for local charities Hospiscare and Dream-A-Way. Sarah Smith, Events Manager at Hospiscare said "Our sincere thanks to Ann Blake and Valerie Lister, for what has been another amazing night of high quality music and entertainment. Our thanks also to the generosity of the talented musicians and artists who have helped raise so much for our services and to the main sponsors Brewin Dolphin and The Exeter."

Fantastic Flying Folk in Ilminster

THERE are three great folk acts to enjoy at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, August 19th in the latest instalment of their regular 'flying folk' sessions. For this edition the line-up showcases two talented soloists and a trio.

Jess Vincent

Jess Vincent is an extraordinary young songwriter from Wiltshire who has a unique and gorgeous voice that has been compared to many (Kate Bush, Iris Dement and Maria Muldaur) but which is so distinctive that it could only be Jess Vincent! Utterly captivating live, she delivers her songs with subtle arrangements, on guitar, baritone ukulele, harmonium and "shruti box", which reveal a maturity that belies her youth, while allowing her vulnerability to shine through.

Hannah Cumming is a young musician whose work has already begun to attract attention. She creates a beautiful sound with her unique mix of singing and fiddle playing and with her sweet toned voice accompanied by the sensitive and percussive tones of her fiddle, Hannah charms her listeners into a world of their own.

Border Tales is a trio from Milverton, near Taunton. Their set features a selection of traditional, contemporary and self penned songs. Border Tales are Jane Newton-Yeo (vocals), Trevor Lloyd (guitars, mandolin, vocals) and Paul Ewings (guitars, bouzouki, vocals). Trevor and Paul hail from Exeter and have played music together on and off for many years. They both live in Taunton. Jane originates from North Devon, lived in Plymouth for many years and now lives in the middle of nowhere on the Blackdown Hills! Their links across the Devon/Somerset border lie behind the origin of their name.

The concert promises an evening of beautiful music, enhanced by the stunning acoustics of the Arts Centre. Advance booking recommended.

Border Tales

Tickets are £10, available from www.the-meetinghouse.org.uk or by calling 01460 54973.

2016 Ilminster Open winners announced

ONE OF Ilminster Arts Centre's most keenly anticipated exhibitions is underway, having opened its doors with a grand prize-giving event on Monday 1st August. The Ilminster Open Competition, which is sponsored by Branston of Seavington, is an exhibition which is open to amateur and professional artists, with selected artworks being displayed at the Arts Centre throughout August.

This year over 140 pieces of art were submitted for the scrutiny of a judging panel consisting of three well-known artists, Kate Noble, Lawrence Nash RWA and Chris Ackerman (who is also an IAC trustee). The prizes were presented by Jacky Gates representing Branston, the exhibition's sponsors.

The competition's overall winner was Jane Burden, whose delicately nuanced textile and ceramic piece 'Does the sun come out, or do the clouds go away', wowed the judges. Second prize was awarded jointly to Peter Monkcom for his witty found object assemblage 'Bolivar', and to Charo Ritchie for her lovingly detailed watercolour portrayal of 'Snowdrops'.

Ceramic artist Sue Smallwood scooped the 3D prize for her sculpture 'Jani', a double-sided portrait head that impressed the judges with its accomplished finish and thought-provoking concept.

Three artists were Highly Commended by the judges, Sue Allen for her mixed media composition 'Somerset Starlings', Imogen Bittner for her atmospheric textile piece 'Winter Beech', and Gary Cook for his watercolour 'Polar Swim'.

Judge and IAC trustee Chris Ackerman, said "Each year the standard of entries gets higher, making judging difficult but very rewarding! We were particularly pleased to see so many 3D pieces, as well as such a wide range of painted media; we congratulate the prizewinning artists on their success in such a strong field of entrants."

There is still one outstanding prize to be announced, the Visitors' Choice award, the winner of which will be revealed at the end of the exhibition. Gallery goers are invited to cast their votes for their favourite artwork - look out for the voting slips and the white ballot box.

The Gallery is open until August 26th, Monday-Friday 9.30am-4.30pm, and Saturdays 9.30am-2.30pm, admission is free.

TAYLOR AND HIS TECHNICOLOUR DREAM HOME

Ask Will Taylor to describe his home decor and his answer is unhesitating: sea-inspired style with a touch of sunshine.

"I'm often at my happiest by the ocean with salty, windswept hair, barefoot, with sand between my toes, and nothing to crowd my mind beyond the endless roll call of blue hues. I like to use these dreamy experiences and blue pool tones to inform the décor of my own interior space," explains the author of the gloriously illustrated Dream Decor: Styling a Cool, Creative and Comfortable Home, Wherever You Live.

The book opens the door to beautiful spaces throughout the world, as well as his own home.

Taylor's design ethos certainly explains why his apartment is more evocative of a Mediterranean sunspot than its actual urban London setting.

Brilliant white walls are the perfect backdrop for cheerful splashes of colour provided by collections of framed prints, and there's an array of vivid accessories, from lamps to vases.

"Blue and white is one of my absolute favourite colour combinations and nowhere is it more crisp and vital than in the jewel-bright setting between the Mediterranean and the Aegean Sea," he enthuses.

"Combining these shades in varying degrees of intensity is often a winner for decor, whatever shade of blue you choose for your keynote - whether its deep and cocooning indigo, or refreshing sky blue.

"Also, when I'm working on a scheme, I always try to bring a touch of sunshine to each room with an injection of yellow. The scheme for my home office is based on the colours of a rowing boat I saw in a small fishing village, with its weathered yellow and blue panels, and just sitting in there transports me to that idyllic spot."

by Gabrielle Fagan, Press Association

Colour is Taylor's passion and he describes himself as a "gentleman hooked-on-hue." His hugely successful interiors blog, Bright.Bazaar, which he founded seven years ago, is recognised as a must-visit site for those wanting to learn how to live in a more technicolour world.

"I believe, no matter where you live, you can create a cool, creative and comfortable space to call your own. To me, a well-decorated home is a collection of personal dividends gathered from one's experiences and adventures while travelling, or simply gleaned from day-to-day personal surroundings," says Taylor, whose book includes easy-to-follow guides to achieving a host of chic looks, from Hollywood chic and Italian rustic, to petite Parisienne and Scandi comfort.

"I've lost count of the number of times a new-to-me place, or seeing a routine experience in a new light, has resulted in an urge to bottle up one of those many sensory feelings to bring back home so I can interpret them into my decor. It's lovely to experiment and have fun with interiors and colour."

COLOUR CRUSH

If you're looking to make colour the central element of your scheme, there are two main routes to choose from, advises Taylor. "Either create an all over colour statement, such as wallpaper or paint across all walls, or introduce a lone splash which stands out in a neutral space. Achieve that with a vibrant bedspread draped over white bedding, or maybe an oversized piece of art."

"In my open-plan living and dining area, I've used yellow and dusty pink as accent colours to inject hue into a monochromatic base palette - there's one black feature wall and the rest are white. The abstract art above a white linen sofa was a point of reference for my chosen accent shades."

MEDITERRANEAN MAGIC

"Translating the seductive colours and textures of the Mediterranean into your home is simple," says Taylor.

"Sit vivid shades of azure blue against fresh whites and accent the palette with shots of hot pink, inspired by the abundance of bougainvillea.

"The key ingredients are white-washed walls, weathered wood, terracotta, a burst of yellow, earthenware and painted shutters. A peppering of organic elements - a bowl of citrus fruits and vase of cut blooms, for example, are a perfect finishing touch."

For even more authenticity, he advises introducing textural interest by juxtaposing rough stone walls with cool, tiled floors and soft linen upholstery.

GET WILL'S LOOK: Two shades of blue combine in an appropriately named Pool Mediterranean mosaic tile, £31 per square metre, at Topps Tiles, which could work well on a floor, or as a feature splash-back. The Shutter Store's four-panel classic shutters in bespoke dark blue paint, from £168 per square metre, could ramp up a blue-skies atmosphere. Alternatively, set a brilliant blue sofa against a pure white wall. Loaf's large Pudding Sofa, in a vivid cobalt vintage linen, which starts from £1,545, is a beauty. Make a statement with Ikea's Besta high gloss white storage sideboard, £190, and add a colour pop with the Scandi store's turquoise Lampen table lamp, £2.95. Quirk has a cornflower blue bottle vase, £32 for cut flowers too.

Head joins heart as Alfa Romeo announces UK pricing and specification for all new Giulia

HEAD joins the heart today as Alfa Romeo announces the UK pricing and specification for the highly-anticipated All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia range, with prices starting from £29,180 OTR.

Featuring all new rear-wheel drive architecture, perfect weight distribution, best in class power-to-weight ratios, and innovative engine and driver technologies, the All-New Giulia is every inch a true Alfa Romeo. In terms of style, the All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia stands out for its distinctive Italian design, which is expressed through an impeccable sense of proportions, based on the technical architecture, as well as the sophisticated simplicity and quality surfaces used both inside and out.

In the UK, the All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia model range features five trim levels – The Giulia, Super, Tecnica, Speciale and the range topping Quadrifoglio – and is available in 13 different exterior colour options. The Alfa Romeo Giulia drivers can also choose between four engine variants (two petrol and two diesel), which are all paired to a new eight-speed automatic transmission as standard.

The entry trim level 'Giulia' includes comprehensive standard specification. The most salient standard specification includes new efficient active safety systems, including Forward Collision Warning (FCW) with Autonomous Emergency Brake (AEB) with pedestrian recognition, Integrated Brake System (IBS), and Lane Departure Warning (LDW) – all of which have contributed to The All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia being awarded a prestigious Five Star Euro NCAP rating, with 98% protection result for adult occupants – making it the highest score ever achieved by a car, despite the more severe Euro NCAP evaluation system introduced in 2015.

Rounding out the entry level trim are a host of styling and functional features. Exterior features include 16-inch alloy wheels, LED rear lights, chrome exhaust and aluminium brake calipers. As with all Alfa Romeos, the interior of the car focuses on driving satisfaction with dual-zone climate control, Alfa™ D.N.A. rotary driving mode selector, 3.5" TFT colour cluster instrument panel, UConnect™ 6.5" display infotainment system with DAB plus MP3 and Bluetooth connectivity, 8-speaker audio system, rear parking sensors and cruise control. In addition, the presence of non-invasive technology can be perceived among the instruments which surround the driver, including Giulia's leather steering wheel which houses all main driver controls including the ignition start button. Available with the 200hp 2.0 litre turbo engine, prices for The All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia start at £29,180 OTR.

The full package of standard equipment on the Alfa Romeo Giulia trim level is supplemented on the Super version with exclusive interior and exterior features. Exterior wise, Super trim level adds 17-inch alloy wheels and a dual chrome exhaust tip. Inside, Alfa Romeo Giulia Super features an 8.8-inch 3D navigation with 7-inch TFT display, as well as leather and cloth seat trims in three colour options. The engine range comprises the 200hp 2.0-litre turbo petrol, 150hp 2.2 JTDM-2 and 180hp 2.2 JTDM-2. Prices for the Super range start at £30,750 OTR for the 2.2 litre JTDM-2 150hp version.

The All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia Tecnica adds useful and stylish features for the business user, including power seats, climate pack (cooled glove box, rear air vents and air quality system) and privacy glass. It also adds a driver assistance pack featuring front and rear parking sensors and rear view camera with dynamic gridlines. The engine range comprises the 2.2 litre Turbo diesel with 150hp or 180hp. Prices for the Alfa Romeo Giulia Tecnica start at £30,995 OTR for the 150hp 2.2 diesel.

Building on the Super trim level, drivers wanting an even sportier presence on the road can upgrade to the Speciale trim level. From the exterior this sporty trim level features 18-inch 'Sport' alloys, 25W bi-Xenon headlights, sports front and rear bumpers, a sports diffuser, dual chrome exhaust and red brake calipers. Inside the cabin, the Alfa Romeo Giulia Speciale features aluminium metal sport pedals and footrest, heated and powered front seats, heated steering wheel and leather sports seats. At £34,150 OTR, Alfa Romeo Giulia Speciale comes fitted with the 2.2 JTDM-2 180hp engine.

The top-of-the-range Quadrifoglio trim level adds functional and styling contents to the standard specification, enhancing its sophistication and high-performance feel: these include leather and Alcantara upholstered sports seats, sports steering wheel with red ignition button, carbon fibre inserts for the interior and aerodynamic exterior spoilers, comfort and safety features that also include BSM (Blind Spot Monitoring) technology and rear camera as well as 35W Xenon headlights with AFS technology. In addition, it features technical gear designed specifically to maximise dynamic performance: the AlfaTM Active Aero Splitter system, the dedicated braking system, the AlfaTM D.N.A. Pro selector with Race mode that communicates with the AlfaTM Chassis Domain Control (CDC) system, and AlfaTM Torque Vectoring. Powered by a new 510hp, 600Nm Bi-Turbo V6 petrol engine, with an eight-speed paddle shift automatic transmission as standard, pricing for the Giulia Quadrifoglio super saloon start at £59,000 OTR.

The All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia range will go on sale in the UK later this year.

Nissan unveils world's first solid-oxide fuel cell vehicle

Nissan Motor Co., Ltd. today revealed the world's first Solid Oxide Fuel-Cell (SOFC)-powered prototype vehicle in Brazil that runs on bio-ethanol electric power.

The breakthrough model, an all-new light-commercial vehicle, can rely on multiple fuels, including ethanol and natural gas, to produce high-efficiency electricity as a power source.

Nissan president and CEO Carlos Ghosn said: "The e-Bio Fuel-Cell offers eco-friendly transportation and creates opportunities for regional energy production...all the while supporting the existing infrastructure. In the future, the e-Bio Fuel-Cell will become even more user-friendly. Ethanol-blended water is easier and safer to handle than most other fuels. Without the need to create new infrastructure, it has great potential to drive market growth."

The fuel cell prototype forms part of Nissan's ongoing commitment to the development of zero-emission vehicles and new automotive technologies including autonomous drive systems and connectivity. Nissan already sells the world's highest-volume zero-emission car, the LEAF, and is pioneering Intelligent Mobility systems that will be deployed in a range of vehicles over coming years.

In this latest zero-emission development, the e-Bio Fuel-Cell prototype vehicle runs on 100-percent ethanol to charge a 24kWh battery which enables a cruising range of more than 600km (373 miles). Nissan will conduct further field tests on public roads in Brazil using the prototype.

Research and development of the e-Bio Fuel-Cell was announced by Nissan in June in Yokohama. The powertrain is clean, highly-efficient, easy to supply, and runs on 100-percent ethanol or ethanol-blended water. Its carbon-neutral emissions are as clean as the atmosphere, which will be the part of natural carbon car. Also, the e-Bio Fuel-Cell offers the brisk acceleration and silent driving of an EV, along with its low-running costs, while boasting the driving range of a gasoline-engine vehicle.

Bio-ethanol fuels are mainly sourced from sugarcane and corn. These fuels are widely available in countries in North and South America, which feature widely-established infrastructure. Due to the easy availability of ethanol and low combustibility of ethanol-blended water, the system is not heavily dependent or restricted by the existing charging infrastructure, making it easy to introduce to the market. In the future, people may only need to stop by small retail stores to buy fuel off the shelf.

In pursuit of realizing a zero-emission and zero-fatality society for cars, Nissan continues to promote vehicle intelligence and electrification. Nissan's brand promise of "Innovation That Excites" is delivered with "Nissan Intelligent Mobility", which focuses on how cars are powered, driven and integrated into society through a more enjoyable driving experience.

The e-Bio Fuel-Cell will realize the concept of "Nissan Intelligent Power," promoting greater efficiency and electrification of cars and the joys of driving, alongside battery EVs, such as the "Nissan Leaf", "Nissan e-NV200," and "e-Power," which is equipped with an engine housing an exclusive large-capacity motor and power generator.

Nissan will continue to provide value to its customers by incorporating systems that enable the extraction of electric power from various fuels, while addressing the infrastructure issues tied to energy supply in every region of the world.

i20 Turbo Edition added to Hyundai range

Hyundai Motor UK has revealed pricing and specification details for its new i20 Turbo Edition. Designed, engineered and built in Europe, the i20 Turbo Edition will be priced from £12,975 OTR when it enters showrooms this August.

Meeting the growing trend for small capacity turbo petrol engines, the special edition i20 Turbo features Hyundai's entertaining yet efficient 100PS 1.0-litre turbocharged 3 cylinder petrol engine with CO2 emissions just 104 g/km.

Fitted with distinctive 16" alloy wheels, the special edition model will be available in a choice of six exterior colours: Polar White, Aqua Sparkling, Sleek Silver, Stardust Grey, Phantom Black and Red Passion, all with a sophisticated Black/Grey interior.

Based on the well-specified i20 SE, the sporty new i20 Turbo Edition offers Bluetooth®, DAB digital radio, cruise control with speed limiter, and a leather wrapped steering wheel with audio and phone controls as standard. The special edition builds on the SE model's specification, adding a rear view camera, automatic lights with dusk sensor, and satellite navigation via a seven-inch integrated touch screen.

With the satellite navigation upgrade, Turbo

Edition owners receive a free seven-year TomTom Live Services subscription, which provides the most up to date traffic information, speed camera alerts, weather updates, and live Point Of Interest notifications.

To coincide with the launch of the Turbo Edition, Hyundai Motor UK will be launching a new TV advertisement for the i20 which will run from August 5 – September 19. The 30 second ad will leverage our recent successes in the World rally Championship and showcase how the learnings from our motorsport team will filter down across the range over the coming years.

More tech and a sporting edge as two new value-packed Octavia models join the range ŠKODA is adding two new trim levels to its best-selling Octavia range – SE Sport and SE Technology. Both new models offer significant equipment boosts over the standard SE models and have been created to satisfy buyer demands for the latest in-car technology and sporty design.

Priced from £19,990 OTR, the Octavia SE Sport is available in hatch and estate form and is offered with two engine options: 1.4 TSI 150PS and 1.6 TDI 110PS, with the option of a DSG gearbox on both. As part of the standard specification, SE Sport models stand out from the crowd thanks to 17-inch Denom alloy wheels, bi-xenon headlights, LED Daytime running lights with automatic activation and LED rear lights. Inside, SE Sport models feature sport seats, a Super Sport Multi-Function Steering Wheel and an automatic dimming rear view mirror, while standard technology includes Amundsen satellite navigation system with Wi-Fi and cruise control.

Despite its raft of additional equipment offered on the SE Sport, it costs just £950 more than the standard SE. That means buyers choosing the SE Sport over the SE benefit from over £3,150 of customer value over the cost of individual options.

Joining the SE Sport in the expanded Octavia line-up is a new SE Technology model. It can be specified in hatch or estate forms, and is available with four TDI diesel options with power outputs ranging from 110PS to 150PS. The 1.6 TDI 110PS engine can be specified with a DSG automatic, customers can also choose the frugal GreenLine III engine that offers exceptional economy of up to 80.7mpg on the combined cycle and CO2 emissions of 90g/km.

Like the SE Sport model, the SE Technology comes with a specification list that's bursting at the seams with equipment. Among the technology features included over the standard SE are an Amundsen satellite navigation system with Wi-Fi, a four-spoke Multifunction steering wheel, adaptive cruise control (standard cruise control on GreenLine III models) and front and rear parking sensors. The equipment list also features a Chrome pack and double-sided boot floor covering along with light and rain sensors.

The SE Technology replaces the current SE Business model and enjoys a specification that delivers significant value to company car drivers. Despite its increased specification – with options that would normally cost £1,830 on the standard SE – the SE Technology commands a premium of £275 over the outgoing model. This gives a customer saving of £1,155.

For company car drivers choosing the 1.6 TDI 110PS model, the benefits in terms of BIK payments are also significant. Drivers in the 20% tax bracket can save up to £177 a year, while drivers in the 40% tax bracket can save up to £355 when compared to the previous SE Business specified with the same additional equipment as the new SE Technology.

TOM FACEY CUP

CHARD RANGERS 5

CREWKERNE RANGERS 1

CHARD Rangers bagged the first silverware offering of the season with a 5-1 win over Crewkerne Rangers to lift the Tom Facey Cup.

The convincing performance in the final of the Combe St Nicholas-hosted pre-season tournament threw down a marker for the upcoming Perry Street Division Two campaign.

Goals from Matt Gaylard (2), Simon Loader (2) and Scott Marshall secured the trophy – a victory dedicated to the memory of Tom Facey, a former schoolmate of the majority of Chard's starting 11.

A strong start from Chard provided a deserved opener when Loader headed in from a well-worked set piece, before the defender doubled the lead with his left foot from inside the box.

A Darren Contreras free-kick found the head of Gaylard who put the new-look Jocelyn Park side 3-0 up.

Crewkerne kept the game competitive after the break, but Chard remained dominant and won a penalty when Sean Druce showed good feet before he was felled in the box.

Loader stepped up to claim his hat-trick, but he was thwarted by a good save from Crewkerne's keeper.

Karl Fletcher missed a chance to extend the lead and Crewkerne broke away at the other end, finishing well to cut the deficit.

The goal only served as a wake-up call for Chard in the final ten minutes who put some gloss on the result with finishes from Gaylard and Marshall.

Chard captain Ryan Peasland said: "This may be a tournament that is a pre-cursor to the season ahead, but for Chard Rangers this year we were determined to win this trophy. Tom was a very special young man, and a great friend to many in our squad."

"He lost his battle with leukemia when we were at school together and as a team we were determined to lift this trophy for Tom and dedicate to his memory and in support of his family."

● Chard Rangers would like to thank Steve Jones, Graham Barker and all at The Phoenix Hotel for sponsoring the club's new kit.

SEATON with Linda Stone

The extremely wet weather on Monday resulted in the first two games of the week being called off.

Fortunately the weather improved and on Wednesday the men's Over 60s matches took place. The A team played at home against Sidmouth 'A' where Seaton gained full points with a 52 to 23 shot win.

The B team played North Tawton away, winning one triple but losing overall by just three shots.

The C team were also away, at Topsham, where they won one of the triples and managed to win overall by two shots.

The week ended with two friendlies. Firstly at home against Seavalls on Thursday, August 4th, Seaton won by 78 shots to 64, and on Saturday, August 6th, against Bradninch, Seaton lost by 58 shots to 79.

FENITON with Roger Smith

In the men's Over 60s triples league the A team defeated Topsham C by 47-27. The B team lost by just one shot at home to Tiverton West End by 30-31.

The ladies enjoyed good wins firstly away to Heavitree in the over 50s league by 36-33. Later the same day, in the NBTL, they defeated Exonia by 39-26.

The mixed team lost at home to Sidmouth by 73-81. The return friendly against Bridport ended in a tie 103 each.

Finally they travelled to Branksome Park, Bournemouth and had a convincing win by 143-110.

The winning rinks were D Downs, R. Cooke, S. Kury and K. Lovering 32-7, G. Blackmore / G. Skinner, D. Bowden, D. Sanders and R. Smith 27-16, C. Maynard, R. Crowe-Swords, R. Veitch and A. Kury 22-16 and E. Cox, A. Coyne, M. Sellick and G. Phillips 20-14.

HONITON with John Pawley

At last Brian Morrison's frequent visits to the club have paid off, and he now looks suitably pleased with himself following Tuesday's visit.

It's not often someone gets a hole in one during the Mixed, but he did just that on the par 3 second hole – and scored a valuable 5 Stableford points.

Brian and his playing partner, Heather Clarke, amassed a total of 40 points and were clear winners of the American Foursomes with Cherry Liell and Stan Squire coming second with 36 points.

Some way behind were Rosemary Whiteley and Paul Ritchie with 31 points and in fourth place were Maureen Tollemache and John Frith with 30 points.

The Seniors' away match against Teignmouth last week produced a narrow loss of 3½-2½. As the home fixture resulted in a 5-1 win, the overall aggregate score was 8½-3½ in Honiton's favour so captain Alan Pollock was very pleased.

This present week is Work Week on the course – with great attention to the greens – and the Seniors have one home fixture with East Devon and an away fixture at Enmore GC near Bridgwater.

Last Friday's Senior competition was for the Longhurst Cup – a 3BBB Stableford comp with one score to count but off ¾ handicap.

Around 65 players turned out in the good conditions and some good scores were achieved. The rearranged tee times, to accommodate Ronnie Pew's funeral did catch some out so final groupings were slightly altered.

With a bigger field last week there were only two 25 but this week eight were recorded – all at the 2nd – by John Chew, Peter Clarke, John Ward, Bill Phillips, Mike Ward, Jim Wallis, Garth Millard and Norman Black.

The winners of the cup were the team of Peter Blake, David Woodruff and Garth Millard with a score of 45pts. Second were Fred Utting, Dave Morgan and Steve Butcher with 44 pts – ahead of Jim Wallis, Eric Short and Bill Phillips, also on 44 pts, with Phil Donne-Davis, Buzz Harris and Tom Stanton next on the same score.

AMIDST the rain on Monday, 38 Seniors entered the A v B competition, whereby ten games were played out in a 4Ball Better Ball format.

The competitiveness between the players was fierce because of the prestige at stake and after seven games were completed, the score stood level at 31½ - 31½.

The A team won at game eight, and a half at game nine meant that there was all to play for in the final game which was narrowly won by the A team giving them victory by 6 games to 4.

Results: Tony Stenhouse & John McOmish halved with John Bonney & Gordon Hughes; Jerry Stephens & Jonny Bloy lost by 1 hole to Andy Beale & Brian Marsh; Phil Dewar & Roger Stone lost by 4 & 2 to George Willerton & Gordon Bareham; Roger Withers & George Wallace beat Brian Denning & Malcolm Roy by 5 & 3; Bill Hilson halved with Ian Fielder; Maurice Arnold & Alan Davis beat Mike Hone & John Pearce by 1 hole; Norman Markby & Stuart Pope halved with Trevor Dobson & Bryan Frost; Nobby Hodder & Martin Leigh beat Richard Forster & Mike Aldridge by 5 & 3; Barrie Heath & Bob Barrow halved with Des Denning & Tony Johnson; Keith Potter & Nick Hill beat Frank Martin & Bob White by 2 & 1.

Twelve teams of three competed for the Memorial Trophy on Wednesday which was played in the memory of the popular David Passmore who passed away earlier this year.

The format was a Texas Scramble, and in a tense finish in which five teams registered scores below 60, the trophy was won by Bill Hilson's team, playing with two new members.

Result: 1st, Bill Hilson, Mark Cording & Stuart Seery, 56.34; 2nd, Martin Bargery, Clive Fisk & Phil Dewar, 58.67; 3rd, Tony Stenhouse, Barrie Singleton & John McOmish, 59.34.

The Seniors Challenge Cup Final and the Plate competition was competed for on Friday. The ten leading players over the three previous outings were selected for the Challenge Cup with the remaining non-qualifiers competing in the Plate competition, the format for both being an individual stableford.

There was excitement on the 18th hole in the main competition with Frank Martin being one point ahead of Danny Dowell who managed a birdie to draw level, both players returning 36 points.

The birdie saw him in premier position with a better back 9. A stirring effort by Bill Hilson saw him finish one point behind in third spot.

Alan Chance finished top of the 26 entrants in the Plate competition, being two shots ahead of his nearest rivals.

Results: Seniors Challenge Cup – winner: Danny Dowell (36); runner-up: Frank Martin (36). Plate Competition – winner: Alan Chance (39); runner-up: Bob Barrow (37).

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Ladies held their Invitation Day with lady members invited from Somerset, Relgate, Hampshire as well as Devon.

Two ladies from the other clubs played with an Axe Cliff member. The format was one score to count on the first six holes, two scores to count on the second six and all three scores to count on the last six.

The result was a win for Helen Gaudie and her two visitors, Jill Wellington and her visitors came second, 3rd place Janet Dack and 4th on countback Sandra Walker and visitors. There was just one two from Jo Donmall.

On Friday the Ladies played their last league match at The Warren where unfortunately they lost 4½ to 1½.

The Seniors played their return match at home against Bridport and won 4 games to 2.
